Public Health England Co-ordinated Food Liaison Group Studies – Recent Reports

In production:

An assessment of the microbiological quality of liver-based pâté in England 2012-13: comparison of samples collected at retail and from catering.

An assessment of the microbiological quality and safety of raw drinking milk on retail sale in the United Kingdom.