Parish election	Guide to filling in your nomination forms
-----------------	-------------------------------------------

This step by step guide is designed to assist candidates standing in a parish council election¹ in preparing to submit their nomination, and should be read alongside the Electoral Commission's Guidance for candidates and agents.

Task	Tick
1a - Nomination paper (all candidates)
Add your full name – surname in the first box and all other names in the second.
Add any commonly used names - if you are commonly known by a name other than your full name. This will be used instead of your full name on the ballot paper and official notices.
Description – Party candidates can use a party name or party description registered with the Electoral Commission and this must match the details shown on the required certificate of authorisation from that party. Any candidate may use a description, that is no longer than six words and that is not likely to lead electors to associate the candidate with a registered political party. Whatever you enter in this box will appear as your description on the ballot paper. You can also leave this blank
Subscribers – the proposer and seconder must sign and have their name printed. Use your copy of the electoral register to make sure the elector numbers of both subscribers are accurate. When collecting subscriber information ensure that you explain what the information will be used for and that the information will be shared with the RO.
Method of submitting the form to the RO: It must be delivered by hand with the home address form. It can be delivered by anyone you trust. It cannot be submitted by post, fax, e-mail or other electronic means.

Task	Tick
1b - Candidate's home address form (all candidates)
Add your full name.
Add your home address in full.
Add your qualifying address, or qualifying addresses, to each of the relevant qualifications, and tick those which apply.
Add the full name and home address in full of the person who will witness your consent to nomination form. The home address form will not be accepted without this information.
You must submit both part 1 and 2 of the home address form with your nomination papers. Part 1 must be completed by all candidates, part 2 must be completed if you do not want to have your home address printed on the ballot paper. To withhold your home address, you must give the name of the relevant area instead - this is the county/district/London borough which your home address is in - or, where outside the UK, the country which your home address is in. You must also sign the form.
Method of submitting the form to the RO: It must be delivered by hand. It can be delivered by anyone you trust. It cannot be submitted by post, fax, e-mail or other electronic means.

¹ This is not to be used for mayoral or principal area elections. Separate forms and guidance are available.

1c - Candidate's consent (all candidates)
You must be a British citizen, a qualifying Commonwealth citizen, a citizen of the Republic of Ireland, a qualifying EU citizen, or a qualifying EU citizen with retained rights, who does not require leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom or has indefinite leave to remain. You must also be 18 years old or older on the date you sign this form.
You must declare that you meet at least one of the listed qualification(s) and should cross through any that do not apply. The qualification(s) declared should match those given on your home address form.
You must not sign the form if you are disqualified to stand. Make sure that you read the Electoral Commission guidance on standing for election as well as the legislation included on the consent to nomination form. If you are not sure if you are able to stand you should contact your employer (where relevant), consult the legislation or, if necessary, take your own independent legal advice.
Add your full date of birth.
Sign and date the document in the presence of another person. You must not sign the consent form earlier than one calendar month before the deadline for submitting your nomination papers.
The person whose details you provided as your witness on the home address form must also complete and sign the witness section of the consent form.
When you submit the consent form, you must include all the numbered pages (1-7) of the consent form which contain the relevant legislative provisions.
Method of submitting the form to the RO: It must be delivered by hand. It can be delivered by anyone you trust. It cannot be submitted by post, fax, e-mail or other electronic means.

2 - Certificate of authorisation (party candidates only)
Ensure the certificate contains the candidate's full name.
Check the certificate allows the registered party name or description given on the nomination paper to be used (or allows the candidate to choose to use the party name or any registered description).
Ensure it is issued by the party Nominating Officer (or someone that they have authorised to issue it on their behalf) and that it is the original copy signed by that person.
Method of submitting the form to the RO: It can be delivered by anyone you trust. It can be delivered by hand or by post.

30 Disqualification orders

(1) This section applies where—

- (a) a person (“the offender”) is convicted of a Schedule 9 offence,
- (b) the offender was aged 18 or over when the offence was committed, and
- (c) the court is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the offence is aggravated by hostility related to persons falling within any of sections 32 to 34.

(2) The court must, when dealing with the offender for the offence, also make an order (a “disqualification order”) that the offender is disqualified, for the period of 5 years beginning with the date on which the order is made—

- (a) for being nominated for election to a relevant elective office, and
- (b) for being elected to or holding a relevant elective office.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply where the court considers that there are particular circumstances relating to the offence or to the offender which would make it unjust in all the circumstances to make the order; and in such a case the court must state in open court the reasons for not making the order.

(4) For the purposes of this section an offence is aggravated by hostility related to persons falling within any of sections 32 to 34 if—

- (a) at the time of committing the offence, or immediately before or after doing so, the offender demonstrated towards the victim of the offence hostility based on the victim being (or being presumed to be) a person falling within any of sections 32 to 34, or
- (b) the offence was motivated (wholly or partly) by hostility towards persons falling within any of those sections in their capacity as such.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4) it is immaterial whether or not the offender's hostility is also based, to any extent, on any other factor not mentioned in that subsection.

(6) For the purpose of deciding whether to make a disqualification order the court may consider evidence led by the prosecution and the defence.

(7) It is immaterial whether evidence led in pursuance of subsection (6) would have been admissible in the proceedings in which the offender was convicted.

(8) Where a Schedule 9 offence is found to have been committed—

- (a) over a period of 2 or more days, or
- (b) at some time during a period of 2 or more days, it is to be taken for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) to have been committed on the last of those days.

(9) In this section—

“presumed” means presumed by the offender;

“Schedule 9 offence” means an offence listed in Schedule 9 (and any reference in that Schedule to an offence includes a reference to that offence committed by aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of that offence).
